

Position: VWC Member

The Valinor Welcoming Committee (VWC) is a group of dedicated veteran players who voluntarily sacrifice some of their game time to welcome new players to Ashen Empires. Lurking on the Island of Valinor they seek to teach interested players the ropes of the game and prepare them for their future adventures on the mainland. But that is not all. The members of the VWC also enjoy entertaining players and chatting with them.

If you would like to be part of the VWC family please read the following sections that detail our requirements as well as a VWC's duties.

Requirements for joining the VWC:

- You enjoy helping new players and you want to help build the community.
- You are an experienced player who has played continuously for at least one year on both Valinor and mainland.
- You have good knowledge of the game mechanics. However, we do not expect anyone to know everything.
- You have good communication skills and enjoy entertaining.
- You have patience and will always remain calm and nice. You don't mind answering the same question over and over again.
- You have a positive presence on the official game forums.
- You can contribute, on average, an hour per day to the VWC.
- You would rather say "Sorry, but I do not know" than deliberately handing out false information.
- You realize that being a VWC is entirely voluntary. There will be no payment.
- You are willing to sacrifice one character slot per server for your VWC characters.
- At the time of joining your account is either Gold or Diamond.

A VWC's Duties

Your first and most important task is to welcome new players to the game and make them feel at home. This requires you to evaluate whether a new player actually appreciates your efforts. There will always be players who just want to try everything alone and in peace.

As VWC you answer any questions about the game – as long as you have the knowledge. You will find yourself in a situation where you need to answer the same questions many times. Especially explaining the magic system can be very time consuming.

VWCs like to communicate. You enjoy standing in the bank talking to new players, rather than hiding. And you like to entertain.

Still interested in joining?

Feel free to send a forum PM to the VWC Lead GM OuanYin. Please include the name of one of your player characters and the server that character is playing on. Also let us know why you think that you would be a good addition to the team. Once you have sent your application please give us some time to process it. Selecting new VWCs is not a simple task.
